Communiqué

Newsletter of Manipal College of Dental Sciences, Mangalore
Manipal Academy of Higher Education

Greetings from the Department of Conservative Dentistry and Endodontics.

As an undergraduate student who graduated from this college, I had never imaged during those days that one day I will serve my Alma mater. Life is so unpredictable and full of surprises. Today I deem myself privileged to be a part of this great institute.

A new year brings a fresh start and infinite possibilities, our great university has recently obtained the tag of institute of eminence. Under the tutelage of our Pro Vice Chancellor Dr. Surendra Shetty and Dean Dr. Dilip G Naik, our college has reached great heights. All the activities conducted in our college that include the teaching programs, research, publications, extra-curricular activities, community services contribute towards achieving the standards set by our university.

The department of Conservative Dentistry and Endodontics has been given the responsibility of designing and compiling this issue of Communiqué which showcases the events organized by our college. It features the participations and laurels received by our faculty and students. The unique feature of this issue is the beautiful photograph of the all girl post graduate students of the department.

I sincerely appreciate the effort of our Editor Dr. Roma M for diligently compiling and editing this issue along with Dr. Shubashish Das.

This dynamic department began its journey in the year 1987, while the postgraduate teaching programme began in 2009. The primary goal of this department is prevention, diagnosis and conservative based treatment of dental caries and diseases and defects of natural teeth. It aims at restoring the teeth to proper form, function and esthetics using the latest techniques, materials and procedures in a pleasing manner with as little loss of the healthy tooth structure as possible.

The Faculty of this department have to their credit Research grants, Research awards, Scientific publications in National and International Journals and have authored textbooks. The curriculum of Conservative and Endodontics for undergraduate and postgraduate learning is innovative, expansive and interactive with the latest models of teaching methodologies. This department runs two certificate programmes :

1. Certificate Course in Restorative Dentistry – One year full time course that trains the candidate in Endodontic and Restorative procedures. They are acclimatized to be general dentists.
2. Certificate Course in Modern Endodontics – A 5 day program which concentrates entirely on modern endodontic treatment concepts using latest technologies and materials. Thorough knowledge on various equipments will be provided like apex locators, rotary instrumentation, ultrasonic treatments for various cases, etc.

The Department got renovated in 2018 and now works as a fully air conditioned department at both the campuses.
